Dear XXXX

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST REFERENCE NO: XXXX

I write in connection with your request for information dated 16/07/2010, which was received by Greater Manchester Police on 16/07/2010. I note you seek access to the following information:

During the past five years (up to most recent date available) how many PCSOs have been dismissed for disciplinary reasons or for allegedly breaking the law (criminal court action or unproven criminal allegations against them).

Provide a breakdown for each year (either calendar or financial year) for the five years listed above.

In each case list the details of the allegations (either proven or otherwise) that lead to them being dismissed, and the outcome were available.

Please note that if for cost/time reasons you are unable to provide full details for question 3, give priority to questions 1 and 2.

Following receipt of your request searches were conducted within Greater Manchester Police to locate information relevant to your request. I can confirm that the information you have requested is held by Greater Manchester Police.

Yours sincerely

Information Access Officer

COMPLAINT RIGHTS

Are you unhappy with how your request has been handled or do you think the decision is incorrect?

You have the right to require Greater Manchester Police to review their decision.

Prior to lodging a formal complaint you are welcome and encouraged to discuss the decision with the case officer that dealt with your request.

Ask to have the decision looked at again –

The quickest and easiest way to have the decision looked at again is to telephone the case officer that is nominated at the end of your decision letter.

That person will be able to discuss the decision, explain any issues and assist with any problems.

Complaint

If you are dissatisfied with the handling procedures or the decision of Greater Manchester Police made under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 regarding access to information, you can lodge a complaint with Greater Manchester Police to have the decision reviewed.

Complaints should be made in writing and addressed to:

Corporate Information Manager
Greater Manchester Police
Police Headquarters
Chester House
