FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST REFERENCE NO: 01/FOI/25/015670/Y

I write in connection with your request for information dated 16/10/2025, received by Greater Manchester Police (GMP) for the following information:

I would like to know which police officer has taken over from [REDACTED] 'who used to look after Manchester Moss side. I have a lot of information that I have been gathering over the past year on certain someone who deals with drugs and I would love to have a meeting with that police officer.

Result of Searches

Following receipt of your request searches were conducted within Greater Manchester Police to locate information relevant to your request. I can confirm that the information you have requested is held by Greater Manchester Police. However, I am not obliged to supply all the information you have requested as an exemption applies.

When refusing to provide such information because an exemption applies, Section 17(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires GMP, to provide you - the applicant - with a notice which: (a) states that fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption applies.

The requested information is exempt under Section 21 – Information accessible to applicant by other means.

The names of the Neighbourhood Policing Team that covers Moss Side, and a form through which to contact them, is available on the GMP website.
