I write in connection with your request for information dated 13/10/2025, received by Greater Manchester Police (GMP) for the following information:

Gloucestershire police ay their Gloucester Detention Centre insist that all arrested detainees must wear a grey top before they are photographed in custody so that 'we all look the same'.

Under the FOI Act I would like to know your rules/protocol in regard to this. Is a detainee required to wear certain clothes before they are photographed. ?
