05/02/19	Confirmation received on 05/02/19 that PCSO 63318 Digler received a £10 Starbucks Gift card from a victim of crime. The victim had received a letter from an insurance company claiming her elderly mother was involved in a road traffic collision which failed to stop, however this wasn't the case. After some enquiries made by PCSO Digler it was found that the vehicle involved was on false plates and therefore the insurance claim was cancelled. The victim of crime was very thankful for PCSO Digler's assistance as her mother has a history of heart issues and was worried the stress of the situation would trigger her mother's heart problems.	£10 Approximately	PCSO 63318 Digler	Victim of Crime (name withheld)	Supt. 8665 Taylor
25/02/19	Confirmation received on 25/02/19 that PCSO 65050 Wogan had been gifted a bottle of Famous Grouse Whiskey. This was given by a lady who PCSO Wogan helped over the years for checking on her father due to a number of concerns for welfares and health issues as she doesn't live close-by to her father and has no other immediate family in the area which he lived. This has been authorised by Supt. 8965 Jackson.	£20 Approximately	PCSO 65050 Wogan	Member of the public (name withheld)	Supt. 8965 Jackson
